

Dan Halverstadt

Vice President of Quality & Training, USIC

Dan joined USIC as Vice President of Quality and Training in 2014. Dan is an expert in Human Performance and Quality Engineering to prevent system failures. During his time at USIC, he overhauled the training system creating a highly flexible training program that has improved quality performance. Before joining USIC he served in the United States Air Force (USAF) for 22 years holding numerous leadership positions. Most recently, Dan served as the KC-46 Production Manager, a $52 billion project. He also authored and led the Enlisted Flight Test training course for USAF Test Pilot School. He has received several honors: Phi Theta Kapa, Manga cum Laude, Golden Key Honor Society, Flight Instructor of the Year, and the Air Force Young Leader Award.

Dan received his a MS in Quality Engineering and Management and BS in Industrial Technology from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.