Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance Names New Executive Director

The Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance (SCGA), an organization dedicated to enhancing public and worker safety around buried infrastructure, is pleased to announce the appointment of Daryl Posehn, as its new Executive Director.

Daryl brings extensive knowledge of underground infrastructure issues to this role with over 35 years' experience in natural gas transmission and storage planning, design and operations. As the new Executive Director, he will be working with the SCGA Board of Directors and its members to enhance underground infrastructure damage prevention practices in Saskatchewan.

“The Executive Director position is central to our organization’s success in improving ground disturbance practices and the safety of workers and the public,” said Dean Reeve, SCGA President. “Daryl comes to this role with awareness of the issues we face, plus the background and experience required to work effectively with stakeholders in our community.”

The SCGA is a member-driven organization dedicated to ensuring worker and public safety, environmental protection and the integrity of services by promoting and educating on effective damage prevention practices around underground infrastructure activities.
